Diario de la navegacion emprendida en 1781 (Spanish Edition) Basilio Villarino

Al cabo de dos siglos y medio de dominacion se resolví la Corte de Madrid ð colonizar nuestras inmensas costas del sud: sus miras se dirijieron primeramente ð las bahias de San Josæ y de San Julian, concentrándose por último en el Rio Negro, que se considerí mas ð propósito para recibir una poblacion. Los aprestos se hicieron en Montevideo, y el virey Vertiz, que gobernaba estas provincias, acordí con un carpintero los auxilios que debian darse ð D. Juan de la Piedra, nombrado Comisario y Superintendente de los nuevos establecimientos patagínicos. La expedicion zarpi el 15 de Diciembre de 1778, con cuatro buques, y en tan mal estado, que el mayor de ellos hacia 40 pulgadas de agua por hora al salir del puerto; asi es que emplearon cinco dias para desembocar al Océano. Con tan infúustos auspicios se emprendí la grande obra de la colonizacion de Patagínia! Ni se variaron despues. Antes de llegar ð la Bahia sin Fondo, donde debia recalar la expedicion, estallí la discordia entre el Superintendente y D. Francisco de Viedma, que desde entonces aspiraba ð suplantarle: en una correspondencia secreta que este último mantenía con el Virey, le indujo ð desaprobare el primer establecimiento que, segun las instrucciones, Piedra habia fundado en la península de San Josæ; y con igual injusticia se residencií ð Villarino que habia vuelto ð Buenos Aires ð dar cuenta de sus reconocimientos. Se le acusí de infidencia, sin mas fundamento que el haber sabido que el esclavo de un platero, ocupado en sacar en limpio los borradores del piloto, los habia mostrado ð D. Josæ Custodio Sß y Farias, brigadier portugues, que solicitaba entrar al servicio de España. Sin embargo, el viage que en 1779 Villarino emprendí al Colorado fué clasificado de descubrimiento, porque realmente nadie hasta entonces habia visitado aquel rio: su situacion retirada, en el fondo de una bahia toda sembrada de bancos y escollos, lo habia sustraído de las observaciones de los navegantes, que, despues de haber reconocido el Cabo San Antonio, se apartaban de la costa para no empeñarse inutilmente en una penosa travesêa
