Drogas: Prohibición o legalización (Spanish Edition) Ernesto Samper Pizano

Valiéndose de datos históricos y recientes, echando una penetrante mirada a términos, conductas, instancias medicas, legales, culturales, jurídicas, y otras, a veces insospechadas, el autor propone una alternativa a la guerra convencional contra las drogas, hasta llegar a una conclusión que trasciende el maniqueísmo ciego al que se encuentra sujeta la discusión.

Un repaso crítico por lo que ha significado y significa la obstinada política prohibicionista, le permite al autor mostrar el panorama de la situación de los Estados y los ciudadanos ante el "factor droga" en la historia reciente: desde el tráfico y consumo de la marihuana, las redes vinculantes de los distintos tipos de drogas ilícitas, la violencia, los costos económicos del combate y su institucionalización, el consumo de estupefacientes como un problema de salud pública, el uso de las drogas y la criminalidad, las experiencias de leyes tolerantes en algunos países, la prohibición de las drogas en EE.UU., hasta una nueva propuesta, alternativa a la lucha frontal y violenta, son abordados con solidez argumentativa y desde la investigación que Ernesto Samper Pizano emprendiera hace ya más de dos décadas, ante un hecho que ya no tiene discusión: la política represiva no ha dado resultados positivos y lo que está en juego finalmente es una lucha por la Democracia.
