Women of Joy Jack Christianson

In these latter days, women are bombarded with the world's standard of perfection: from the perfect body to the perfect home, the temptation to compare ourselves to others is a powerful tool of the adversary. For many women, perhaps the most destructive ideal is that of perfection in motherhood—and with the world whispering a woman's inadequacies, mothers often face unwelcome reminders of self-perceived failures and shortcomings. Abounding with words of encouragement from scriptures and Church leaders, Women of Joy will inspire and uplift as bestselling author Jack R. Christianson tenderly reminds women that the true measure of perfection is not to be found in the standards of the world, but in the unwavering example of Jesus Christ.
