Christian Satanism! It is: The Worship of Perfection. I am confident to assume that the vast majority of Christians will refute any justification of Christian Satanism under God. It is that Christian attitude that separates an otherwise promising person from God. A Christian Satanist has to give to God what few others could, too. Ghandi and others have said it before: "I would be Christian were it not for other Christians," It is the fixed attachment to that name and of it's identity that has caused the greatest harm, and this is altogether a certainty: "Christian" in it's name and as an identity is a false God and idol that has caused the most harm by Christianity. I therefore answer the question "is Christian Satanism justified?" By saying "yes, more so than Christianity." This is a theological work of Satanism taking three years and priced right. It's a (Chrisitan)Satanic religion of many shades and colors offering its follower many liberating choices unfounded by plain one-sided religion.
