Benito Cereno (Spanish Edition) Herman Melville

Un "terrible episodio de nuestros anales marítimos" lo llamó Benjamín Vicuña Mackenna. Ocurrió en diciembre de 1804 en el mar de la isla Santa María, frente a Lebu, y fue la base del argumento de Benito Cereno, una de las novelas más conocidas de Herman Melville (1819-1891). El autor de Moby Dick supo del levantamiento de esclavos negros que trasportaba el barco español "prueba". El caso habría reactivado la memoria de Melville cuando comenzó a preparar la novela, inventó personajes, modificó el rol de otros, reemplazó ciudades y agregó un misterio psicológico y espesor. Conservó el nombre del capitán aunque debió suprimirle la "doble r" y la "ñ" que no existen en inglés.
