Understanding Field Sobriety and Breath Testing Procedures is an authoritative, insider's perspective on the tests administered and devices utilized by law enforcement officials during a DUI-related traffic stop. Featuring law enforcement officials from across the country, these experts guide the reader through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's standard guidelines for the administration of roadside tests and evaluation of their results. Emphasizing the importance of continuous training on new developments and technologies in this field, the authors share their best practices for eliminating error in test results and standing their ground against the defense's claims. Additionally, these experts describe the breath testing instruments used in their respective states and explain the challenges and nuances of operating each device. From understanding the factors that may impact test accuracy to analyzing observational cues, these leaders provide insight into how evidence is gathered, reviewed, and recorded for use in court. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great law enforcement minds of today, as these experienced officers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this developing legal issue. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. Keith Ternes, Chief of Police, Fargo, ND Police Department - "Eliminating Errors in Test Results Through Training and Preparation" 2. Joseph Turner, Impaired Driving Coordinator, Indiana Law Enforcement Academy - "A Standards-Based Approach to Accurate Testing" 3.
