THE BUMPER BOOK: A Collection of Stories and Verse for Children Watty (editor) Piper

I wish that this magical book could still be found on the book shelves for today's generation. I have owned mine for over 60 years, and while tattered, I treasure the unseen fingerprints of me, my children, my grandchildren, and hopefully one day my great-grandchildren. I can still hear their laughter when trying to say the "Nonsense Alphabet", and the antics of "The Gingham Dog and The Calico Cat", as well as Wynken, Blynken and Nod. I think my personal favorite is "The Swing" and "Christopher Robin is Saying His Prayers". But now I envision myself as the grandma in "The Cupboard". And who can't find comfort in the wonderful poem "Animal Crackers"! Every poem and story is wonderfully written & illustrated - each a treasure. So, when I my head spins with the craziness of today's world & the news is more depressing than I can stand, I take my Bumper Book from the shelf and in a moment I can once again set my world back on track, and hear the laughter of my younger self, my children, my grandchildren, as well as the future laughter of my greatgrands.
