After one of the closest elections in U.S. history, the attention of American people shifted to Florida, the fourth most populous state in the Union, and one of the most diverse, divided, and fastest growing: its 25 electoral votes could have put either candidate into the White House.

The Miami Herald Report finally provides the answers that Americans have been demanding since the night of November 7, 2000. Including:

- * The inside stories of Florida Secretary of State Katherine Harris and Palm Beach County Elections Supervisor Theresa LePore
- * The full investigation of alleged abuses regarding absentee ballots
- * And much more.
