La clave Pinner (Spanish Edition) Andrés Pérez Domínguez

Primavera de 1943. En vísperas del desembarco aliado en el Mediterráneo, el servicio secreto británico ha montado la operación «Mincemeat» para engañar a los alemanes: abandonarán frente a la costa de Huelva el cadáver de un falso piloto de la RAF que porta documentos de los que puede deducirse que el desembarco va a producirse en el Mediterráneo Oriental o en el sur de Francia.

Pocos días después, Gordon Pinner, ex agente de la NKVD, es chantajeado en Londres por dos agentes del MI6 para que viaje a Sevilla y trate de localizar a Miguel Carmona, un viejo amigo a quien creía muerto y que podría tener en sus manos, tal vez sin saberlo, la clave para decidir el futuro de la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Aunque había jurado no volver a poner un pie en España mientras Franco se mantuviese en el poder, Pinner accede viajar a Sevilla, pero por un motivo diferente a aquél por el que ha sido reclutado.
