Call Me Anna (The Disciplines of a Budding Prophetess): Everyday Prophecy Barbara Furguson

In her book about the disciplines necessary for prophesying the author has desired to share with others what the Bible has to say about this important and neglected subject. The author presents a series of chapters designed to help the beginner to approach God in a productive and useful way. This is a stimulating and fascinating book with Scriptural quotations necessary to inspire the reader with faith. Her personal understanding and experiences will give confidence to those who think of exploring their own prophetic powers. Prophecy, when we understand it for what it is ('the ideas of men and women of vision who can picture with certainty the overruling of events on earth on behalf of heaven') is not something only a chosen few can achieve, but something to which we all can, and must, aspire.
