Mr. Holmes (Novela (roca)) (Spanish Edition) Mitch Cullin

Estamos en 1947. Sherlock Holmes se retiró de su labor como investigador hace ya mucho tiempo y ahora es un anciano de noventa y tres años. Vive en una granja remota, en Sussex, con su ama de llaves y el joven hijo de esta. Cada día atiende a sus abejas, escribe en su diario y se da cuenta de que va perdiendo facultades. Aunque siguen proponiéndole que investigue algunos extraños casos, él está tan alejado de esa vida que no quiere ni escucharlos. Se ha convertido en un hombre gruñón y encerrado en los recuerdos.

A través de esos recuerdos llega a un momento de su vida en que tiene que plantearse preguntas que, tal vez, ni él mismo sabía que tenía que resolver, y reflexionará sobre la vida, el amor, los límites de las habilidades mentales y sobre la muerte: la suya propia y la de aquellos que le rodean.

Mr. Holmes es una recreación excepcional de los últimos años del detective más conocido del mundo y una novela arrolladora sobre los misterios de las relaciones humanas.

«Extraordinario... Nuestro héroe (nuestro eterno héroe) nunca ha sido más heroico, ni más humano.» The Village Voice
