This book is for young families that love to spend time with their Creator in the beautiful outdoors. It is a book for groups who want stories about God to feature in their campfire tales. It is a book for people who care about the care, conservation, and preservation of creation. And it is a book for those who want to return home to school and work with concrete plans for implementing the lessons learned in the wilderness. Author Nancy Ferguson brings years of experience as a parent and a church camp professional to this interactive devotional designed especially for families and groups. This creative resource is organized around four weeklong themes that explore Scripture and nature to teach accessible and hands-on lessons about God, human relationships, and creation care. Perfect for family camping trips or church camps!
